Information about the Santa Claus Bed Race:

The Bed Race is open to the public and will take place at the Deltona City Hall parking lot, at 2345 Providence Blvd. Entrants need to be at City Hall by 9:45am. There is no charge to participate in the Santa Claus Bed Race. There will be one award for "Best Race Time" for the winning team.

Rules for the Santa Claus Bed Race:

Bed Race teams must pre-register for the Race by sending in the completed entry form. Deadline is Thursday December 11th. Teams will compete individually for best time in completing the Race course. Teams are encouraged to decorate their beds, and the Best Decorated will win a Bonus of 1 minute off the Race time. Rules for bed construction—bed size is restricted to 36" wide by 72" long by 36" high. Can be made out of any easily available material, but must be able to support 100 lbs. Beds can only be propelled by people, with a six person maximum team size. Although the winner is determined by "best time", reckless behavior and lack of safety practices are discouraged, and may result in disqualification. All team members will need to sign a City of Deltona waiver.

Completed Entry forms need to be emailed to getfit@deltonafl.gov.
