Foreclosure Prevention Workshops offered at Library

March 10, 2011—The City of Deltona, in partnership with Community Legal Services of Mid-Florida, is sponsoring a series of Foreclosure Prevention Workshops at the Deltona Regional Library.

Workshop topics include options for homeowners currently delinquent on their mortgages, refinancing options for those not yet delinquent, financial options for homeowners with adjustable rate mortgages, advice for homeowners who have received a foreclosure summons, bankruptcy, as an option when facing foreclosure, and renters who live in homes being foreclosed on.

The next workshop will be from 6 to 8 p.m., March 24, in the Magnolia Community Room at the Deltona Regional Library, 2150 Eustace Ave. Other workshops are planned in the same location from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on April 23, May 28 and July 23. Additional evening workshops are being planned for 6 to 8 p.m., June 23 and Aug. 25. Other sponsors include the LSC (Legal Services Corporation), the United Way of Volusia-Flagler Counties, and the Florida Bar Foundation.
