City of Deltona recognizes Deltona High, Trinity Christian baseball teams

June 1, 2011— The City of Deltona will recognize the varsity baseball teams from Deltona High School and Trinity Christian Academy, in a special ceremony at 6 p.m., Saturday (June 4). The ceremony will be in the Deltona Amphitheater, at 2150 Eustace Ave.

Former Cleveland Indians pitcher Andrew Brown will speak at the ceremony. Brown graduated from Trinity Christian Academy in 1999, and was drafted the same year by the Atlanta Braves.

The program will feature the principals and athletic directors from both schools, as well as the baseball coaches and the Deltona Wolves and Trinity Christian Eagles men's baseball teams. The Deltona Wolves won their 2011 Class 6A State Semifinal Game, and the Trinity Christian Eagles are the 2011 Class 1A Regional Finalists.

Additional guests and speakers include Volusia County Vice Chair Patricia Northey, and the City of Deltona Mayor and Commission.
