Collaborative Efforts Lead to Hurricane Seminar

May 18, 2012—The start of hurricane season is less than three weeks away, and the private sector is partnering with the government to ensure residents are ready for any possible storms. On Tuesday, June 5th, the City of Deltona, DM White Insurance, and the office of Senator John Mica will present the 2012 Hurricane Preparedness Seminar. The Seminar takes place in the Commission Chambers, and will begin at 5:00pm with an expo, where attendees can visit with the guest speakers. Presentations start at 5:30pm and will continue through 7:00pm.

The list of guest speakers includes representatives from Senator Mica's office, FEMA and the State of Florida Emergency offices, the City of Deltona's Emergency Operation Center and Central Florida News 13. Additionally, there will be local businesses that can provide information on preparing your home for impending storms, and how to recover your property losses afterwards.

The City of Deltona encourages businesses and its residents to attend the 2012 Hurricane Preparedness Seminar, so they will be better prepared in the event of a hurricane and its effects. The City is also planning to rebroadcast the Hurricane Seminar on DeltonaTV/Ch. 199, and that schedule will be posted at www.deltonafl.gov.
