VCSO Deputy Recognized City of Deltona

July 3rd, 2012—The Deltona City Commission officially recognized Volusia County Sheriff Deputy Cody Cochran, for his role in saving the life of a Deltona youngster this past May. At the July 2nd City Commission Meeting, Mayor John Masiarczyk read the presentation, explaining how Deputy Cochran performed CPR on one year old William Timmons, who was a drowning victim. The Deputy was able to revive the young Timmons and keep him stable until paramedics arrived.

The entire City Commission along with Sheriff Ben Johnson, Captain Dave Brannon and staff from the Deltona Sheriff's Substation were on hand for Deputy Cochran's recognition.
