Boil Water Notice for 30 homes on Jessamine Court, Deltona

July 23, 2012—Due to a water service line break in the Jessamine Court and Elkcam Boulevard area, the City of Deltona is advising approximately 30 homes to boil all drinking and cooking water as a precautionary measure. Door hangers will be hung on the affected houses. Water should be boiled at a roaring boil for a period of no less than three minutes. This order is in effect beginning immediately and continuing for a period of no less than 48 hours.

Standard bacteriological testing of the water service system in this area is currently underway. If you have any questions, please call (386) 575-6800.
