Worried about money for college?

Deltona residents can apply for William S. Harvey Scholarship

Dec. 4, 2012— The City of Deltona is proud to again offer financial assistance to its residents who want to further their education with a degree from one of Florida's colleges or university. Applications for the 2013 William S. Harvey Scholarship are now available on the City's Web site, and/or in the school's guidance office, and must be submitted or postmarked 5 p.m., Feb. 25, 2013.

Scholarships are awarded based on the applicant's financial need, scholastic achievements, participation in academic and community organizations and programs. The William S. Harvey Scholarship Selection Committee will review the applications ranking them according to a predetermined ranking system. Their recommendations require approval from the Deltona City Commission.

Applicants must be enrolled at an accredited Florida community college, college and/or university and fully complete the scholarship application and include all required support materials before the deadline. Two-time recipients of the scholarship will not be considered.

For more information, and to obtain an application, please visit the City of Deltona Web site, www.deltonafl.gov.
