Two Events Mark the Dedication of Bethune-Cookman's New Deltona Campus

August 13, 2013—Bethune-Cookman University will open the doors of its Deltona Campus in August 2013. On Monday August 19, the following two events are scheduled for the Grand Opening of this newest Education Center.

Ribbon Cutting Dedication, 3 p.m.

Administrative Offices, Deltona Campus, 1555 Saxon Blvd.

This is the official ribbon cutting dedication and opening of Bethune-Cookman University's Deltona Campus. The Dedication is an invitation-only event for government and B-CU officials and representatives.

Marching Wildcats Performance, 3:45 p.m.

The City of Deltona's Dewey O. Boster Sports Complex, 1200 Saxon Blvd.

The Marching Wildcats, a 325 member unit, will perform at Deltona's premier soccer facility and sports complex. Known as "The Pride," the band has been featured in numerous events and televised performances including an appearance in the 2002 film Drumline. This event is free and open to the public.
