DeltonaTV/Ch. 199 Local Programming for September

September 6th 2013—The City of Deltona's government TV station, DeltonaTV/Bright House Cable 199, is providing a rundown of the topics for its locally produced programs in September. Each month, the City produces five programs—Deltona Parks & Recreation Update, Deltona Fire Bulletin, The Economic Development Report, Code Enforcement Notebook and the Deltona Audubon Report.

For the month of September:

- the Deltona Parks & Recreation Update previews the upcoming Authors' Book Fair at the Deltona Regional Library;
- the Deltona Fire Bulletin reviews the warning signs of an impending stroke and what recovery is like;
- the Economic Development Report features guest Dr. Edison Jackson, the president of Bethune-Cookman University to discuss the University's expansion to Deltona;
- the Code Enforcement Notebook guests talk about the difficult subject of pet neglect and abuse;
- the Deltona Audubon Report provides a slide show of the monthly and seasonal avian visitors to Deltona as well as a raptor raid on a songbird nest.

These programs are scheduled to air several times throughout the week, on a 24 hour rotation, to ensure residents have ample opportunities to see these programs, specific to Deltona. DeltonaTV is broadcast on Bright House Cable, on digital channel 199. For more information regarding the programming on DeltonaTV/Ch. 199, please contact llopez@deltonafl.gov.
