City of Deltona launches “Law Enforcement Appreciation Month”

Aug. 2, 2016—The City of Deltona will kick off “Law Enforcement Appreciation Month” at National Night Out, tonight at Deltona’s Municipal Complex.

National Night Out is from 5:30-8:30 p.m. Around 8 p.m., Mayor John Masiarczyk will officially begin the City’s month-long observance by illuminating two stars in front of City Hall. The stars represent the badges or shields worn by most law enforcement agencies including Deltona’s, the Volusia County Sheriff’s Office.

In addition to the stars, the City has erected a “blue line” American flag, on a pole centered between the stars. This display, located in front of the Commission Chambers portion of City Hall, 2345 Providence Blvd., will be visible to the public 24-hours a day through the end of August.
