Get to know your neighbors— National Night Out Deltona

July 22, 2016 – The public is invited to come to Deltona City Hall for National Night Out, an event sponsored by the Volusia County Sheriff's Office and the City of Deltona, 5:30 to 8:30 p.m., Aug. 2. National Night Out is an opportunity for Deltona's community to get to know its law enforcement officers. It's a great event that helps strengthen neighborhood spirit and police/community partnerships. NNO also encourages crime and drug prevention awareness and generates local support for and participation in local anti-crime programs.

There will be activities and presentations in the courtyard at City Hall as well as seminars inside. VCSO personnel will demonstrate how officers utilize K-9, SWAT and motors teams. The Deltona Fire Department will have free car seat safety inspections. In doors, officers will offer informative seminars on avoiding identity theft and sex offenders and predators. A question and answer sessions will follow each seminar. Residents that attend the seminars are eligible for door prizes donated by the sponsors of the event. There's even a class for children on "Stranger Danger." There will also be a bounce house, free food, vendors, vehicles on display, fingerprinting and information on starting a neighborhood watch group.

National Night Out was introduced in 1984, by the National Association of Town Watch, a non-profit crime prevention organization. The City of Deltona contracts with the Volusia County Sheriff's Office to be the law enforcement provider in the City. For more information on National Night Out, contact Sergeant Pat Leahy at the Volusia County Sheriff's Office, (386) 860-7030 or pleahy@vcso.us.
