Jazz vibes to take over Music in the Amphitheater

Aug. 2, 2016—Saxophonist Dayve Stewart says “It’s all about the vibe” as he plans to bring a night of jazz to the Music in the Amphitheater series, 7-9 p.m., Aug. 13, Deltona Amphitheater, 2150 Eustace Ave.

Stewart is a world-class saxophonist that plays routinely at B.B. King’s Blues Club at Pointe Orlando. His concerts will take you on a musical journey through several styles and times. He connects with his audience and makes them feel “at home” in every single note. No matter your age, if you are looking for music that takes your mind off the daily routine, than the musical vibes of Stewart is it.

Some of the area’s best food trucks will be in the parking lot of the Amphitheater so there’s dinner and entertainment. We’re expecting S.W.A.T., Los Munchies, Flaming Pizza, Jake’s BBQ, Ritters Ice Cream and Thip Khaw. Admission to the Music in the Amphitheater series is always free. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted.

For information on this and other events happening in the Deltona Amphitheater, call the City’s Parks & Recreation Department, (386) 878-8900.
