Betty Fox bringing her blues quartet to Amphitheater

Sept. 30, 2016—The Betty Fox Band will perform during the next Music in the Amphitheater concert series, from 7 to 9 p.m., Oct 8, in the Deltona Amphitheater, 2150 Eustace Ave.

Soul is what it's all about with this passionate quartet who were named the 2014 Best of the Bay's (Tampa Bay Area) "Best Local Blues Band." Betty Fox appreciated singing early in life and performed for the first time at a church play at the age of 4. Her family had a deep love for southern country gospel and tight harmonies which they would express at every family gathering, and that is where her affinity for music began. Now at age 27, Fox now performs with heavyweights Matt Walker on guitar, Benjamin Sudano on bass and Sam Farmer on drums.

Together they've experienced well-deserved success all over the state playing multiple music festivals including the City of Treasure Island's Bikini Blues Bash Festival, the Tangerine Blues Festival, the Dunedin Wines the Blues Festival and the Gasparilla Music Festival. They headlined the Safety Harbor Seafood Festival, are frequent performers at the Harry P. Leu Gardens concert series and will be performing at the upcoming Daytona Blues Festival.

Some of the area's best food trucks will be in the parking lot of the Amphitheater so there's dinner and entertainment. We're expecting Flaming Pizza, Los Munchies, Jake's BBQ, Molos Miami Grill, Jam Rock and possibly Ritter's Ice Cream. Admission to the Music in the Amphitheater series is always free. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted.

For information on this and other events happening in the Deltona Amphitheater, call the City's Parks & Recreation Department, (386) 878-8900.
